- Intentionally unites students from diverse racial, cultural and socioeconomic backgrounds.
- Staff passionately share the Good News of Jesus Christ. Each year hundreds of lives are transformed through Christian evangelism and discipleship at Barefoot.
- Diverse Platforms: Visual Arts, Performing Arts, Music, Traditional Athletics, Extreme Sports, Outdoor Adventure and Team-building programs help students from different backgrounds build friendships and discover common ground.
- More than 2,000 campers and staff attended 19 sessions of overnight, day and family camp in 2018 across 4 states, including our fourth year in Southern CA, our Parent/Child retreats in KY, and our first year in New Jersey.
- Our rising K-12th grade campers came from over 40 different countries in 2018.
- At least 60% of campers' families received scholarships to attend camp in 2018.
- We awarded over $450,000 in full and partial scholarships in 2018. Not one child was turned away because of an inability to pay.
- Partnerships with dozens of strategic ministries in Middle Tennessee and beyond ensure campers are ministered to year-round.

THE HISTORY OF BAREFOOT REPUBLIC CAMP

- Founded in 2000, we have hosted nearly 13,000 campers through 2018.
- Before 2009 camp was hosted at local retreat centers, but thanks to the financial support of donors, seven weeks of summer camp are now held at our own facilities.
- We have 110 acres on Barren River Lake near Scottsville, KY.
- Campers stay in three Treehouse Villages (3 cabins each).
- We are raising funds to build Treehouse Village #4, since we had to turn away hundreds of applicants last summer due to space limitations.
- Other amenities include: 5,700 sq ft multipurpose center with full-equipped commercial kitchen and cafeteria, corporate meeting space and a recording studio; private rec lake that includes a blob, waterslide, paddleboat, aqua pad and beach; gaga ball pit, outdoor amphitheater, wiffball field modeled after Fenway Park, low-ropes course; high ropes including tree-climbing, a giant swing, leap of faith, and zero gravity drop; 42' climbing & rappelling wall, a 9-hole disc golf course, 6,000 sq ft indoor meeting space that houses a basketball court and skatepark; paintball field, bouldering wall, sand volleyball court, 9 Square In The Air, hiking trails, open fields, woods and access to Barren River Lake.
- Rentals of our property throughout the year help subsidize our operations.
- Barefoot initiated its Day Camp in 2012 with 183 campers. In 2018, the program served almost 1,000 campers over eight sessions in Nashville, Brentwood and Franklin, TN, including two at Amy Grant's farm.
